

Doctoral School of the UTCN – DOCTORAL PROGRAMMES IN ARCHITECTURE

Admission session: July 2020

Supervisors list, topic areas and number of positions

Total: 6 positions with scholarships (of which 3 with added fellowships)

professor	nr. positions	subject areas
prof. dr. arh. Virgil POP (FAU)	1 position + scholarship + fellowship (full attendance required)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • History of architecture (history of architecture in Transylvania; historical evolution of settlements in Transylvania; Renaissance, Baroque and Classicist architecture in Europe); • Protection of the architectural and urban heritage (history of the attitudes to heritage; historical changes of heritage; re-employment of ancient heritage – spoliation).
prof.dr.arh. Dana Vais (FAU)	1 position + scholarship + fellowship (full attendance required) 1 position + scholarship (partial attendance required) 1 position - tuition fee required	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The architecture of modern habitation (history of modern habitation; housing under the communist regime; modern housing as heritage); • Contemporary housing (mass housing; housing under neoliberalism; social housing and housing policies); • Margins: edges and peripheries of habitation (informal spatial practices; urban activism and participation; urban peripheries; the architecture of habitation between urban and rural);
asoc.prof.dr.hab.arh. Dan-Ionuț Julean (FAU)	1 position + scholarship + fellowship (full attendance required)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • History of Architecture in Romania, to the West of the Carpathians – topics regarding historical rural residential ensembles (estates, castles, mansions, and manor houses); • Enhancement of cultural heritage (both built and mobile) through architecture (methods, procedures, regulations, professional practice, building types); • Architecture – Time – Habitudes (architecture in relation to the culture, the lifestyle, and the identity of societies; architectural microhistories between local influences and confluences; ethno-cultural and architectural studies).
prof.dr.arh. Kázmér Kovács (U. Sapientia)	1 position + scholarship (partial attendance required)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Architectural, urban and natural heritage; heritage conservation in the context of contemporary settlements; conservation of inhabited milieu and understanding of tits transformations. • Garden history; implications of landscape-architectural theory and practice in the articulation of contemporary doctrines of conservation of the cultural heritage; • Landscape and cultural landscape; understanding of local specificities in terms of the relationship between human habitat and environment; local, urban and territorial evolution. • Evolutions of theoretical thinking in the field of natural, built and landscape heritage.
prof.dr.arh. Mihaela Ioana Agachi (FAU - em.)	1 position + scholarship (partial attendance required)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The history of architecture; • The history of the urban built space; • Investigating and understanding the making of architectural and urban space; • Ways to assess the quality of the built space: from building - local, to city and territory - global; • The relationship between complex analysis – and setting regulation, specific to the process of design in architecture and urbanism; • The readability aspects of the built space.